

The Morton M. Silverman Student Award

The American Association of Suicidology (AAS) announces the Morton M. Silverman Student Award for a paper written by a student on a topic directly related to the field of suicidology.

Anyone who is pursuing a degree in his or her field and is currently enrolled as a full-time undergraduate, graduate, professional, or medical student or trainee is eligible.

The AAS Student Award Committee will review all submissions and announce one awardee. The awardee will receive:

- An engraved plaque
- A check for $250
- Roundtrip coach airfare to the 2010 Annual Conference ($500 maximum allowance)
- 2 nights of free lodging at the conference hotel
- Complimentary conference registration

The expectation is that the awardee will attend and read his or her paper at the annual conference. The paper will be considered for publication in Suicide and Life-Threatening Behavior. The paper (approximately 20-25 pages, double-spaced, in APA format, with 100-150 word abstract, references, tables, and figures, etc., on separate pages) should be submitted in quadruplicate to:

Thomas Joiner, Ph.D., Chair, AAS Student Award Committee,
FSU Psychology, Tallahassee, FL 32306-4301

Deadline for Submission: December 15, 2009
Notification to Awardee: February 15, 2010
