

INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

JST welcomes articles addressing the practice and research of systemic, postmodern and post-structuralist therapies. Please e-mail materials for review to the appropriate address below. Please do not submit elsewhere simultaneously. All general submissions, special section articles, training and supervision, or research articles should be no more than 20 pages in 12 point font with references following the standard style of the American Psychological Association (5th Edition). Articles should include an abstract. Additional information about submitting materials for each of the areas can be found on www.guilford.com.

GENERAL SUBMISSIONS: JST is interested in publishing articles by systemically and postmodern oriented practitioners, whether they are seeing clients, teaching students, supervising therapists, or consulting with colleagues about their craft. Send articles about your new or expanded ideas, as well as your clinical innovations, to jduvall@hincksdellcrest.org and c.c. pat_shelenko@yahoo.ca. Jim Duvall can be contacted at (416) 972-1935 ext:3342.

SPECIAL SECTIONS: Periodically JST publishes a special section (three or four articles on a theme). Anyone with a good idea please contact either Laura Beres at lberes2@uwo.ca or David Pare at dpate@uottawa.ca.

RESEARCH ARTICLES: To help bring researchers and practitioners into conversation, we publish clinically relevant, reader-friendly research articles. We welcome submissions that describe non-traditional studies or that offer non-traditional narratives of traditional studies. Go to the JST webpage at www.guilford.com or contact Carolyn Tubbs for detailed suggestions about how to compose research-related manuscripts. E-mail research articles to Carolyn Tubbs, Ph.D., Research Editor, Drexel University at cyt24@drexel.edu and c.c. pat_shelenko@yahoo.ca.

TRAINING AND SUPERVISION ARTICLES: We publish articles highlighting innovations in training and supervision of systemically and postmodern oriented clinicians. E-mail Stephanie Brooks at Stephanie,brooks@Drexel.edu or John Lawless at john.lawless@esc.edu and c.c. pat_shelenko@yahoo.ca.

INTERVIEWS: Is there someone you would like us to interview? Contact Scot Cooper with your ideas by e-mailing him at black-lab@sympatico.ca.

HUMOR CORNER: Send original, short commentary, cartoons, or descriptions of other spontaneous moments that have induced smiles. Help us create a space for original pieces that bring the healing of jocularity to our work. Make us smile and laugh at ourselves! Call David J. Van Dyke, 312-279-3980, or e-mail him at dvandyke@argosyu.edu.
