

INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

JST welcomes articles addressing the practice and research of systemic, postmodern, and post-structuralist therapies. Please e-mail materials for review to the appropriate address below. Please do not submit elsewhere simultaneously. All general submissions, special section articles, training and supervision, and research articles should be no more than 20 pages in 12-point font with references following the standard style of the American Psychological Association (Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association, 6th ed.). Articles should include an abstract. Additional information can be found at guilfordjournals.com.

GENERAL SUBMISSIONS: JST is interested in publishing articles by systemically and postmodern oriented practitioners, whether they are seeing clients, teaching students, supervising therapists, or consulting with colleagues about their craft. Send articles about your new or expanded ideas, as well as your clinical innovations, to jduvall@hincksdellcrest.org and c.c. pat_shelenko@yahoo.ca. Jim Duvall can be contacted at (416) 972-1935 ext: 3342.

SPECIAL SECTIONS: Periodically JST publishes a special section (three or four articles on a theme). Anyone with a good idea please contact either Jim Hibel at hibelj@nova.edu or David Paré at dpare@uottawa.ca.

RESEARCH ARTICLES: To help bring researchers and practitioners into conversation, we publish clinically relevant, reader-friendly research articles. We welcome submissions that describe nontraditional studies or that offer nontraditional narratives of traditional studies. Go to the JST webpage at guilfordjournals.com or contact Carolyn Tubbs for detailed suggestions about how to compose research-related manuscripts. E-mail research articles to Carolyn Tubbs, Ph.D., Research Editor, at ctubbs@stmarytx.edu and c.c. pat_shelenko@yahoo.ca.

TRAINING AND SUPERVISION ARTICLES: We publish articles highlighting innovations in training and supervision of systemically and postmodern oriented clinicians. E-mail Jim Duvall at jduvall@hincksdellcrest.org and c.c. pat_shelenko@yahoo.ca.

INTERVIEWS: Is there someone you would like us to interview? Contact Scot Cooper with your ideas by e-mailing him at sj.cooper@shaw.ca.
